WE WELCOME YOU in the website of CLOE project!

The platform aims to promote the work of young artists all around Europe and create a solid network among them.

CLOE platform is managed by the Greek team of KEAN organization, but all the partners of the project contribute with articles about local artists of their countries.

You will find articles about all kind of arts, dance, music, paints, crafts, architecture, etc.

Art Events are also advertised, so stay tuned to not lose the best suggestions of all kind of performances and exhibitions around Europe!

On the section of project's updates, you will also find any news about CLOE, all the Multiplier Events and any kind of performance and activity held in all the partner countries.

You can also submit your own article in the dedicated section!

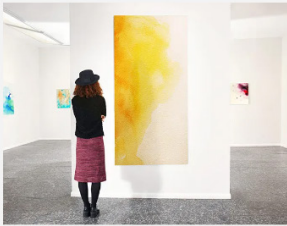

We invite all the partners of the project to upload articles about the artists of their same nationalities and their artwork in order to advertise their job.
